BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.

From Wheeling to Baltimore, and connecting with the Washington Branch R. R. at the Junction, (lately called the Relay House,) nine miles from Bal-timore, and with the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore R. R. to Philadelphia. THE great tunnels upon the new part of the line are now fully completed, and the whole road is in fine idition, presenting one of the most picturesque and romantic routes in the world. The greatest care for the comfort and safety of passengers is constantly exercised by the officers and agents of this Company, and there is no safer road in the United States, notwithstanding the reports of interested and unscrupulous agents of other routes to the contrary.

The new and splendid steamers of the Union Line from Louisville, Madison and Cincinnati, connect with the road at Wheeling, and through tickets from these places to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, &c., may be had of J. T. Morehead, on the Levee, at Louisville, or the boats (of the Union Line only) at Louisville, The steamers leave the wharf at Louisville daily for Wheeling, where passengers and baggage are carefully transferred to the cars.

The express mail train leaves Wheeling daily, at half past 8 a. M., and arrive at Cumberland (201 miles) at 2 P. M., and allowing two hours there, arrives in Baltimore (380 miles) at day light next morning, in full time to connect with early Washington and Philadelphia trains, making the passage through from Wheeling in less than twenty hours, including stoppages, Travelers will not fail to observe that this is THE HEAPPST as well as one of the most pleasant routes to
